FIVE FRESH PICKS ON OUR RADAR THIS MONTH

BY NYKIA SPRADLEY

Airbrush Perfection

If the thought of buffing on your foundation is intimidating, the Temptu Air will change your life. The company that makes the device is expanding its offerings with an oil-free, 24-hour-wear foundation packed with peptides, amino acids and antioxidants. The 20-shade collection meets all your base needs with a three-in-one formula that primes, conceals and corrects. It's highly pigmented but buildable. And once it dries, it won't budge.

TEMPTU Perfect Canvas 24-Hour Airbrush Foundation ($38, 8 ml, and $48, 12 ml, temptu.com).

LIPSTICK QUEEN Mornin' Sunshine ($25, ulta.com).

THE LOOK

Following the success of its Frog Prince collection, Lipstick Queen's latest color-changing hue transforms from a sunny yellow to a peachy coral, similar to what this model is wearing, that really looks good on every skin tone. The lippy is sheer, so give it a swipe.

PRETTY SMART

Celeb makeup artist Yolonda Frederick-Thompson (right), who knows a thing or two about on-the-go beauty, has created a phone case with a refillable, full-face makeup palette stashed inside. GLAM.OR.RING Mobile Makeup Case ($100, glamorring.com).

SCENT SPECTRUM

For the many fragrance enthusiasts who fell in love with niche luxury label Pinrose's fragrance wipes, your new favorite may be right here in its latest colorful lineup in larger sizes. If it's your first experience with the brand, the online quiz at pinrose.com can help you tap into your sensory preferences for certain colors, shapes and sounds, and predict which perfume you'll love.
